MUSIC AND ARTS EVENTS AUTUMN 2021

www.lancasterpriory.org

Autumn 2021 is packed with art, music and community events. It is also the first months of my ministry as Vicar of Lancaster and I am hoping to meet as many people as possible as I get to know the church and city.

The Priory has been a place of gathering, a place of worship and community for almost a thousand years. As well as the special services highlighted in this booklet, you can find music, community and the Vicar at the regular services. You can find more details of these and of how to contact me on the Priory website (www.lancasterpriory.org).

So this autumn we invite you to join us through a wonderful series of events and services. There is something for everyone and we'd love to see you.

The Revd Leah Vasey-Saunders
Vicar of Lancaster

After such a long break, we are delighted to welcome back music and arts events to the Priory. The autumn programme features an eclectic mix of events, representing a wide range of musical styles. It is especially pleasing to be able to offer a full programme for our highly popular Festival of Song, featuring several former members of the choir as soloists. Our festival theme is 'Breaking forth into singing' and, as such, many of our events feature audience participation.

Our choirs are now resuming their weekly commitment to choral services, providing music of the highest standard to glorify God in this place. I am always pleased to hear from people who wish to sing with us; please do get in touch to find out more.

EXHIBITION

THREADS THROUGH CREATION

by Jacqui Parkinson

29TH SEPTEMBER - 4TH NOVEMBER 2021

‘Threads through Creation’ is a spectacular set of twelve huge textile panels, which is set to delight visitors to cathedrals and major churches all over England. It’s an extraordinary, huge tour de force of stitching.

Jacqui Parkinson is a textile artist whose work has been displayed in most of the cathedrals of England.

In 2016 she completed the largest textile project by a single artist, ever. ‘Threads through Revelation’ took more than three and a half years to complete. It consists of fourteen huge panels, and it toured fourteen British cathedrals, and was seen by about 500,000 people.

And now she has just completed her next huge project. ‘Threads through Creation’ has taken nearly three years. It consists of twelve huge panels, 2.7m high (8ft), 1.3 (4ft) - 3.5m (11ft) wide. They re-imagine the days of creation described in the book of Genesis at the start of the bible.

DRAMATIC AND EXUBERANT

‘Threads through Creation’ starts with dramatic, stark elemental designs. Then, as the story unfolds things become more and more exuberant, with increasingly spectacular designs and astonishing colours.

It is all designed to be attractive and highly accessible for viewers of all ages. Jacqui has developed a remarkable skill in characterising creatures through stitch. Her depiction of creation is vibrant and beautiful and she often adds a touch of fun (for example one panel includes a dog trying to talk to a monkey; in other panels creatures jump out of the frame).

AN UNUSUAL TECHNIQUE

Jacqui uses an unusual, probably unique technique. She starts with antique bedsheets, that she feels hold their own tales of life and death. She quilts them, and paints them with fabric dyes. She then overlays these with layers of silk, stitches them together in a thick black thread, using a free motion sewing machine: this allows her to building up a drawing line upon line . It took about eight million stitches. The dyes and silks combine to create a complex and vibrant background for the applied work on top. The result can be extraordinarily complex when you look close up. She also finishes most panels with metallic leathers and gold leaf.

INFORMATION FOR VISITORS

This exhibition is free for individuals and small groups to attend, but donations are welcome. Groups of ten or more should contact steph@lancasterpriory.org to discuss arrangements for a supported visit.

MURMURATIONS

by Darren Andrews, Jenny McCabe and Dave Shooter

9TH NOVEMBER - 4TH DECEMBER 2021

‘Murmurations’ is a unique collaboration between three local artists: photographer Darren Andrews, printmaker Jenny McCabe, and composer Dave Shooter. Alongside the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds, Lancaster Priory is presenting this innovative installation to celebrate the work of nineteenth-century Lancaster-born animal welfare activist, Emily Williamson.

Emily Williamson (1855-1936)

Founder of the RSPB and pioneer of women’s education, Emily Williamson was baptised at the Priory. Work is ongoing to arrange a plaque in her memory (the first in the city honouring a woman).

PHOTOGRAPHS BY DARREN ANDREWS

This installation will feature an exhibition of images by this local photographer, mostly taken during lockdown as a personal response to the pandemic. The text below explains Darren’s thinking behind his work:

‘I’m obsessed with murmurations. I even often dream about them. Starlings don’t get the credit they deserve if you ask me. People take them for granted but when they perform en masse just as the sun is setting in Winter they provide a magical display full of drama and danger. It’s not just the sight of the murmuration that I love. It is also the noise. The sound of thousands of birds in a group swooping right over your head is something special.

Most of the photos for the book were taken during the lockdown period. I owe a lot to those fabulous little birds. They kept my spirits up during a difficult period in my life.’

Darren’s book, ‘Murmur’ will be launched at Leighton Moss on 23rd October. The book and individual prints will be available to purchase throughout this exhibition.

COMMUNITY ART INSTALLATION BY JENNY MCCABE (PRINTMAKER) AND DAVE SHOOTER (COMPOSER)

Nature became very important to many people during the lockdowns.

Did nature help you through this time?

Did you explore local green spaces?

Did you notice birds in your garden more and hear their songs?

Jenny and Dave are asking us to provide written and spoken responses to the questions above, to capture our experiences of nature during lockdown and produce an immersive multi-disciplinary crowd-sourced art installation of print, words and electronic music.

FOR MORE DETAILS ON HOW YOU CAN BE INVOLVED, PLEASE VISIT WWW.LANCASTERPRIORY.ORG

THE LAUNCH EVENT FOR THIS WILL BE ON FRIDAY 12TH NOVEMBER.

COMMUNITY PRINTMAKING WORKSHOPS*

26TH OCTOBER, FROM 10.00 AT LEIGHTON MOSS

30TH OCTOBER, FROM 10.00 AT LANCASTER PRIORY

This will include a sound booth to record audio submissions.

**Further pop-up workshop dates to be announced*

TICKET PRICING

A large proportion of concerts in this autumn season are free of charge and others are deliberately low-priced to widen access in celebration of our return to public arts events.

ACCESSIBILITY

We will work hard to ensure that Priory events are as accessible as possible in this historic building. Please contact us to discuss your needs, if appropriate.

SAFETY MEASURES

Constantly responding to the ever-changing guidelines, we will work hard to ensure we keep people as safe as possible in these challenging times. The building will be operating with a reduced capacity, concerts are often shorter without intervals, and any queuing will be managed appropriately.

PARKING

Limited disabled parking is available by the church tower on a first-come, first-served basis. The nearest secure parking is ParkSafe on Damside Street, only a short walk from the Priory.

We welcome enquiries from musicians and artists for coffee concerts, evening recitals, exhibitions and other events.

Please contact me on steph@lancasterpriory.org to discuss potential collaborations. I would also be delighted to hear from anyone who would like to volunteer to support events as a steward.

I hope that you enjoy this season’s exciting programme and look forward to welcoming you to Lancaster Priory.
