A Taste of Home: Home-cooked recipes from Syrian refugees living in the UK A finalist in the national Guild of Food Writers' Annual Awards for 2021, edited by Rebecca Joy Novell (of Lancashire County Council Refugee Integration Team). The book contains recipes, stories and photos that capture the beauty and majesty of Syria before the war. The Syrian families pay tribute to their lost homeland while at the same time offering their gift of hospitality to our country as they try to make a new home here. The book costs £20 (including £5 donation to Lancaster Priory). Please contact Jill Novell (email: riverlunelancaster@gmail.com) or speak to a vergier.

Olive Branch - Please continue to donate food items in the bin at the back of church.

The Priory is taking a big hit from a drop in visitor income, venue income, and service collections.

If your income is keeping up, please consider using the QR code to make a donation to the work of the Priory. We share a great sense of thanksgiving for all that God is inspiring around us in these difficult times.
