HOLY WEEK & EASTER

AT LANCASTER PRIORY

Read about our Holy Week Speaker.

The Rt Revd Julie Conalty, Bishop of Birkenhead.

Julie was born and brought up in Ormskirk, Lancashire. She went to university in Sheffield to study for a Biblical Studies degree in the hope of following her calling into ordained ministry in the church. However, women could not train to become priests in the Church of England at that time, so Julie found work running a homeless shelter, trained as a social worker and began a career in the Probation Service in London. Subsequently, she worked for the Youth Justice Board before becoming the national manager of a resettlement project and then a Local Authority manager for Specialist Youth Services. She also founded a consultancy partnership. Along the way, Julie was accepted for ordination training and was ordained deacon in 1999 and priest in 2000. She was initially a self-supporting minister while continuing her secular work.

In 2010, Julie transferred to Stipendiary Ministry, giving up her 'day job' and taking a post as an Associate Vicar in south east London. In 2012 she became vicar of Christ Church, Erith in the Diocese of Rochester. She was appointed as Archdeacon of Tonbridge in 2017 and Bishop of Birkenhead in 2021.

There is an opportunity to meet +Julie over refreshments on Monday 25th March after the 7.30pm service and before compline at 9.00pm.
